QUESTIONS FOR 2009 NAR DIRECTOR CANDIDATES

Candidate's Name: STEVE K. FLINN

1. At NAR meetings, what would you do if the issue on the floor is inconsistent with the state Association's views or position? Could you present Washington REALTORS' views on the subject?

I would address the issue to the whole assembly, from the Washington Realtors position.

Absolutely, I can present the view and/or position of our Washington Realtors.

2. In which national committees are you interested, and in which committees would you strive to become a member? What would you do with your time when you are not attending committee meetings?

The Federal Housing Policy Committee.

The Affordable Housing Committee.

The Equal Housing Opportunity Committee.

3. Describe your area of interest and your past involvement with the state Association. Within that expertise, what would be your three-year vision as NAR Director and how would it benefit Washington REALTORS?

Education, Finance and Affordable Housing.

1st. Educate Realtors, Elected Officials, our public on the home buying process.

2nd. Explain Finance Options available for purchasing a home.

3rd. Promote Affordable Housing for every county in Washington State.

4. How will you identify and put forth the issues that are important to our Association and how will you communicate that information to the membership?

By paying attention to everything that affects "Private Property Rights" and costs Of Affordable Housing.

Communicate information through our Washington Realtors Communication Delivery systems, and by contacting our WR Leaders and WR Staff.

5. How will you communicate the information on issues brought forth at NAR meetings to the membership?

By completing the Required NAR Directors Reports, of all NAR Committee meetings, forums, updates, also, supplying copies of data from these meetings, forums and updates, that will benefit our Washington Realtors.
