QUESTIONS FOR 2009 NAR DIRECTOR CANDIDATES

Candidate's Name: Pili Meyer

1. At NAR meetings, what would you do if the issue on the floor is inconsistent with the state Association's views or position? Could you present Washington REALTORS' views on the subject?

It is important to be able to give voice to the position of one's state while participating at NAR, and I have done so in the past.

2. In which national committees are you interested, and in which committees would you strive to become a member? What would you do with your time when you are not attending committee meetings?

I am currently in the first year of a three year term on Strategic Planning, my favorite committee because of the front row seat it provides on the real estate industry. I believe that my involvement in that committee allows me to help position us in Washington to take advantage of and be prepared for the next stage of the market.

I am also interested in and have served on the Risk Management Committee. This is where all the hot issues come through. I have had the opportunity to serve on several task forces of this group.

When not at committee meetings, I sit in on other meetings and forums that are of significance for us here in Washington. In addition, I network with other NAR Directors from across the country in order to help position us when we need help on issues.

3. Describe your area of interest and your past involvement with the state Association. Within that expertise, what would be your three-year vision as NAR Director and how would it benefit Washington REALTORS?

I have primarily served WR in the Education Committee, but that has included involvement in the Agency Task Force and the Forms Committees. As an instructor, it is critical that I be current on the industry and laws in Washington and how they affect our members.

As an instructor, I have the opportunity to carry information from NAR to our members in classes. My 3 year vision is that I continue to inform our members in print and in the classroom and in meetings about the events at NAR and how those events impact our members and the market.

4. How will you identify and put forth the issues that are important to our Association and how will you communicate that information to the membership?

Participation in the activity at NAR as well as staying current between meetings allows me to identify issues.

I will communicate that information to the President, Executive Committee, NAR Director Forum, Region 12 Caucus and members at large as needed. I will use every medium necessary, from phone calls to emails to personal contact to convey the information.

5. How will you communicate the information on issues brought forth at NAR meetings to the membership?

I think I answered this under #3 above.
