

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
LIFE SERVICE AWARD

DENNIS ROSE

Dennis Rose has dedicated more than 33 years to the real estate profession, serving his local Yakima Association as a long-time board member, president, and constant presence at YAR events. At the state level, he has spent 19 years on Washington REALTORS® committees and leadership bodies—including Government Affairs, Legislative Steering, RPAC, Nominations, the Executive Committee, and continued service as a BOD State Director—culminating in his term as 2007 WR President and induction into the RPAC Hall of Fame. With national service as an NAR Director, decades of impactful association participation, and a career-long commitment to professional excellence and developing new leaders, he is an exceptionally deserving recipient of the Life Service Award.

