

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
LIFE SERVICE AWARD

MARK KITABAYASHI

A three-time Thurston County Association President and 2013 Washington REALTORS® President, Mark has devoted more than 25 years to leadership and advocacy at every level of the REALTOR® organization. He has served on nearly every major state and local committee, held multiple executive and strategic roles, and represented Washington nationally and globally through NAR leadership, international liaison work, and RPAC Hall of Fame-level investment. A highly credentialed managing broker, award-winning instructor, and trusted housing advisor, he pairs deep professional expertise with significant community service and philanthropy, making him an exceptionally deserving recipient of the Life Service Award.

