

WASHINGTON REALTORS®

WR strives to provide an event experience that is positive and rewarding for everyone. By attending a WR event, you agree to abide by this Statement of Appropriate Event Conduct and Meeting Policies.

Statement of Appropriate Event Conduct

All attendees (including WR members, guests, exhibitors, staff and vendors) are expected to conduct themselves professionally and with good judgment and common sense. That means at all times being respectful of others and of the venues in which events are held, including virtual meetings platforms, broadcast platforms chats, and virtual networking chat rooms associated with WR events.

WR aims to provide a safe event experience for all attendees and does not tolerate inappropriate behavior or harassment in any form. Inappropriate behavior includes harassing or defamatory verbal or written comments, displays of illicit images or use of illicit language, threats, intimidation, discrimination and unwanted physical contact.

Meeting Policies

WR reserves the right to remove any guest who is disruptive.

Presentation materials are copyrighted by the speakers, their companies or others from whom they have received permission to use. Written permission from the Association/speaker is required before recording or re-publishing.

Attendees who violate this Statement of Appropriate Event Conduct may be removed from the meetings. In addition, attendees found in violation of this Statement may not be permitted to participate in future WR events at the discretion of association leadership.

We value your attendance and thank you for your cooperation to ensure a safe experience for all.
