

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

BRANDON SIMMONS

Brandon Simmons has supported Pierce County by creating practical, people-centered solutions to homelessness and housing instability. As founder of the Skoolie Foundation, he leads initiatives like the Empowerment Bus and transitional support programs that provide resources, dignity, and clear pathways toward stability and self-sufficiency. Brandon mobilizes volunteers, business leaders, and community partners through efforts such as the Denim & Diamonds fundraiser and ongoing outreach, turning community concern into real action. His hands-on approach, measurable impact on families, and unwavering commitment to uplifting vulnerable community members make him a standout nominee for the Citizen of the Year Award.
