

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

CAILYN MURRAY

Cailyn is a compassionate leader and youth advocate who has strengthened Whidbey Island by helping students and families feel seen, supported, and equipped to thrive. As Co-Executive Director of Readiness to Learn, she brings “magic” to programs such as Back to School Backpacks, Coats for Kids, tutoring, writing workshops, toy drives, and Holiday House, helping to make sure educational and basic needs are met for local students. Her broader community service includes supporting individuals with intellectual disabilities, serving with SW CARES, leading in Girl Scouts, and presiding over the Whidbey Children’s Theatre Board. Cailyn’s deep commitment to belonging, acceptance, and opportunity for youth makes her a deserving recipient of the Citizen of the Year Award.
