

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

JASON CLARK SECOND HARVEST

Jason is a non-profit leader with decades of work fighting food insecurity in the Spokane community. As President and CEO of Second Harvest, he has guided the organization in serving thousands of individuals and families, treating hunger as a solvable community challenge rather than an inevitability. Under his leadership, Second Harvest has built strong partnerships with businesses, volunteers, and groups like Spokane REALTORS®, connecting housing professionals to hunger relief efforts that support the same families they serve. Jason's long-term vision, compassion, and commitment to collective impact make him an exemplary nominee for the Citizen of the Year Award.
