

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

JESSICA BATEMAN

Senator Jessica Bateman, a committed public servant and housing advocate, has distinguished herself through her leadership, collaboration, and focus on community-centered solutions. As sponsor of Washington's landmark Middle Housing legislation, HB 1110, and Chair of the Senate Housing Committee, she has advanced impactful housing affordability reforms that expand opportunity across the state. Her long-standing engagement with Thurston County REALTORS®, from her time on the Olympia City Council to ongoing participation in association events, reflects a genuine partnership with local stakeholders. Senator Bateman's dedication to practical, equitable housing policy and her consistent work alongside local REALTORS® make her a deserving recipient of the Washington REALTOR® Citizen of the Year Award.

