

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

JONES ATTERBERRY

In Skagit County, Jones has built-up the REALTOR® community through decades of association leadership and civic service. He's invested 45 years in the real estate profession, serving as NPSAR President, State Director, Membership Chair and Vice-Chair, and an active member of committees including Government Affairs, RPAC, and Education. Beyond REALTOR® service, Jones devoted 18 years as a Skagit PUD Commissioner, represented local builders and REALTORS® on water resource issues, and has given more than four decades of leadership to the Lions Club in Sedro-Woolley and Burlington. His positive spirit, financial stewardship, and hundreds of volunteer hours reflect a deep commitment to his community, making him a standout nominee for the Community Service Award.
