

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

SUSAN WEED

Susan, a long-time community pillar and advocate in Pullman, has decades of service in broadcasting, civic leadership, and volunteerism. As co-owner of Pullman Radio News and KQQQ since the 70s, she has used her platform to inform residents, uplift local charities, and spotlight community initiatives. Her leadership includes many years on the Pullman Chamber of Commerce Board, the Civil Service Commission, and the Pullman School Board, where she helped guide local governance and education. Susan's tireless volunteer work with organizations such as Pullman Child Welfare, the Community Action Center, and United Way reflects a deep, sustained commitment to community well-being, making her a notable nominee for the Citizen of the Year Award.
