

WASHINGTON REALTORS® AWARDS NOMINEE
COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

TERRY SMITH

Terry has provided decades of professional excellence and community service to the Jefferson County Community. She has served on the Jefferson County Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors for more than 20 years in roles including President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Chair of Community and Government Affairs, helping advance member success and local engagement. Her commitment to housing and basic needs continues through her work with Real Estate Professionals for Affordable Housing, Habitat for Humanity, and the Jefferson County Non-Profits Financial Services Committee. Terry's ongoing support of schools, arts, and local agencies reflects a hands-on dedication to community well-being, making her a notable nominee for the Community Service Award.
